FEATURES

Nitro Max raises the bar for both beginner and more advanced drummers, delivering an authentic playing experience with ultra-quiet Alesis mesh drum heads, all in a compact design. Featuring 32 different kits from the renowned BFD drum sample library, Nitro Max offers seamless play along with music streaming services via Bluetooth, a host of built-in learning features, and 3-months of Drumeo for unlimited lessons with the world's best instructors.

The All-In-One Kit for Learning, Practicing and Playing

Nitro Max offers everything you need to learn or improve drumming skills, and to get good – fast. Premium mesh heads offer a responsive, enjoyable playing experience with minimal external noise, so you can practice whenever you like. A wide range of ultra-realistic drum sounds provide a truly immersive drumming experience, whatever your style of music. And a host of different learning tools help you practice and improve your timing and playing. Plus you can seamlessly play along with your favourite tracks from Spotify, Apple Music and other streaming services via Bluetooth connectivity.

Ultra-Quiet, Super-Responsive Alesis Mesh Drum Heads

With the tightly-woven premium mesh heads on Nitro Max, there's no need to worry about late-night practice sessions disturbing neighbors or family members, no matter how energetic the playing gets. There's a large 10" snare pad for ultimate playability, and three 8" tom pads. The kick drum pad has a large surface area that plays great with the included kick pedal. And for cymbals there's a 10" crash cymbal with choke, a 10" ride, and a 10" hi-hat with foot controller.

Built-In Premium Drum Sounds From BFD – Plus More via BFD Player

Nitro Max offers over 440 professionally recorded drum sounds from the industry leader BFD. Each sound has been carefully recorded, mixed and produced to provide rich timbral detail and expressive articulation. There are 32 classic and modern ready-to-play kits to choose from, which you can easily tweak using the backlit screen. You can also create and store 16 of your own kits. Connect Nitro Max to a PC or Mac via USB and you can unlock an extra premium sound pack via BFD Player, and explore an ever-expanding world of sounds.

Includes Three Months of Drumeo (Worth $90)

Drumeo is the world's biggest online drum education platform, providing step-by-step lessons from over 200 of world's best drummers and over 5000 hit songs to learn – real tracks by everyone from Nirvana to N.W.A. Songs can be sped up and slowed down to help you master them, and you can remove the drum parts entirely to make space for your own playing. It's like being in the band. Plus there's unlimited personal support and an online community of over 3 million drummers to help you reach your goals. Nitro Max includes a 3-month access pass to Drumeo, worth $90.

60 Free Lessons From Melodics – Plus 1-Month Premium Subscription

We've teamed up with Melodics to give you 60 free lessons forever, plus 1-month premium access. Melodics offers an active, song-based learning approach that starts by jamming with and learning from legendary grooves. Get instant feedback on how you're doing and know you're making progress every session with a game-like approach to learning that constantly motivates you to keep improving. Learn from popular songs like "Can't Stop" by Red Hot Chilli Peppers, Green Day's "Holiday," as well as classics like "Superstition" by Stevie Wonder.

A Lightweight, Space-Saving Design

The Nitro Max Kit includes everything you need to start playing drums right away – all in a lightweight, compact, stylish design. A hard-wearing cable snake, drumsticks, and drum key are all included. There's also a high-quality single-beater Alesis kick pedal, and an expressive hi-hat control pedal. The drum pads, cymbals, and module all mount to a four-post rack that stands firm no matter how hard you play. Already a compact, space-saving design, you can even fold Nitro Max even smaller for easy storage – perfect for bedrooms, living rooms, playrooms, or any other area where space is limited.
